POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS➤ SCOPE AND PURPOSE

Winro Commercial (India) Limited ("The Company") is committed to the best corporate governance practices and ensures compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations") as amended, Industry Standards on Minimum Information to be provided to the Audit Committee and Shareholders for approval of Related Party Transactions (issued by the Industry Standard Forum as per SEBI Circular dated 26th June, 2025) ("Industry Standards") and such other regulatory provisions, as may be applicable. Regulation 23 (1) of the Listing Regulations requires a Company to formulate a Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and dealing with Related Party Transactions. In light of the above requirements, the Company has formulated Policy on Related Party Transactions ("this Policy") for identification of related parties and the proper conduct, documentation and approval of all Related Party Transactions.

➤ OBJECTIVE

The Policy is framed to ensure due and proper compliance with the applicable statutory provisions and to fortify that proper procedure is defined and followed for approval / ratification and reporting of transactions, if any, as applicable, between the Company and any of its Related Parties. The provisions of this Policy are designed to govern the transparency of approval process and disclosures requirements to accord fairness in the treatment of related party transactions.

The Objective of this Policy is to set out:

- a) the materiality thresholds for Related Party Transactions;
- b) the manner of dealing in Related Party Transactions based on the provisions of the Act, the Listing Regulations and any other laws and regulations as may be applicable to the Company from time to time; and
- c) to provide guidance on various disclosure and reporting requirements for Related Party Transactions.
- d) to ensure availability of minimum and adequate information to the Audit Committee and Shareholders to enable informed decision-making in respect of Related Party Transactions, in line with applicable Industry Standards.

➤ DEFINITIONS

The following transactions shall require a prior approval of the Board:

- (i) Related party transactions which are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length price;
- (ii) Material Related Party Transactions.

Any member of the Board of Directors falling under the definition of related party shall not vote to approve the relevant transactions irrespective of whether the member is a party to the particular transaction or not. In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties are also placed before the Board for its approval:

- Transactions which may be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time (i.e. value threshold and/or other parameters) require Board approval in addition to Audit Committee approval;
- Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval;
- Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which in Audit Committee's view requires Board approval;
- Transactions which are viewed to be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis by the Management, but which are also tabled to the Board for its approval from an improved governance perspective; and
- Transactions meeting the materiality thresholds laid down in this Policy, which are intended to be placed before the shareholders for approval.

4. Approval of the Shareholders of the Company

- All the transactions with related parties meeting the materiality thresholds, laid down in this Policy, shall be placed before the shareholders for their approval and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

The omnibus approval granted by the shareholders for material related party transactions in an annual general meeting shall be valid till the date of the next annual general meeting held within the timelines prescribed under Section 96 of the Companies Act, 2013 or rules, notifications, or circulars issued thereunder from time to time.

In case of omnibus approvals for material related party transactions, granted by shareholders in general meetings other than annual general meeting, the validity of such omnibus approvals shall not exceed one year from the date of such approval.

- All kinds of transactions specified under Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 which:
 - (a) are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis; and
 - (b) exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 are placed before the shareholders for its approval.
 - (c) For this purpose, no related party shall vote to approve the relevant resolution irrespective of whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.
 - (d) Pursuant to Regulation 23(5)(b) of the Listing Regulations and Section 188(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, the requirement for seeking shareholders' approval shall not be applicable to transactions entered into between a holding Company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
 - (e) Pursuant to Regulation 23(5)(c) of the Listing Regulations, the requirement for seeking shareholders' approval shall not be applicable to transactions entered into between two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the listed holding Company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

➤ MINIMUM INFORMATION FOR APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company shall place before the Audit Committee and the Shareholders, as applicable, minimum information as prescribed under the Industry Standards, on a transaction-wise basis, to enable informed decision-making.

➤ RATIFICATION OF THE RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

The members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, may ratify Related Party Transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the Audit Committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;
- (ii) the transaction is not material in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations;
- (iii) rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the Audit Committee at the time of seeking ratification;
- (iv) the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations;
- (v) any other condition as specified by the audit committee:

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the Audit Committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the Audit Committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the listed entity against any loss incurred by it.

➤ DISCLOSURES & REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

1. Disclosures in the Board's Report

Company shall, along with the Board's Report placed before the shareholders in the Annual General Meeting, include a statement in Form AOC 2 containing the particulars of contracts or arrangements with related parties referred to in Section 188 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013.

2. Disclosures to Stock Exchanges

- (i) Company shall submit to the stock exchanges on a half yearly basis, within the timeliness as prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India from time to time, the disclosures relating to Related Party Transactions in the format as specified by Securities and Exchange Board of India from time to time and publish the same on the website of the Company at www.winrocommercial.com.

Provided that the Remuneration and Sitting Fees paid by the Company or its Subsidiary to its Director, Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management, except who is part of Promoter or Promoter Group, shall not require Disclosure under Regulation 23 (9) of the Listing Regulations provided that the same is not material in terms of the provisions of Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

- (ii) Disclosures shall also be made in the Annual Report as specified under the Companies Act, 2013 or the statute under which such listed entity is constituted and Schedule V of the Listing Regulations, including any amendments made from time to time.
- (iii) This Policy shall be uploaded on the website of the Company i.e. www.winrocommercial.com and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Board's Report.

➤ CONFLICT IN POLICY

In the event of a conflict between this Policy and the extant regulations or laws (as may be amended, replaced, restated, from time to time), the relevant provisions contained in the regulations and laws shall prevail over this Policy.

➤ AMENDMENTS IN POLICY

To the extent any change/ amendment is required in terms of any applicable law or change in regulations, the regulations would prevail over the Policy and the provisions in the Policy would be modified in due course to make it consistent with law, however, notwithstanding such non-modification or pending such modification, the applicable law and regulations (as changed) shall prevail over the Policy, and the Policy shall be read accordingly. The Audit Committee shall review the Policy periodically and may propose to amend the same from time to time and no alteration in the policy will be made without approval of Board of Directors.

➤ GENERAL

The power to interpret and administer the Policy shall rest with the Board of Director of the Company under the supervision of the Audit Committee of the Board. The Board is also empowered to make any supplementary rules/orders to ensure effective implementation of the Policy. These will, however, be reported to or tabled before the Audit Committee of the Board, from time to time, to ensure Audit Committee's oversight on these issues.
